I do, they only laugh at me and answer, that such clumsy things are well enough for boys.

I often tell them no wonder they get cold, with nothing but a bit of lace over their shoulders, and a piece of gauze on their arms. It seems so funny, too, to call boys hardier than girls. Why if I thought so-thin sacks, thin slippers, bare arms, and bare necks, I should'nt live a month. Hardy—they're the hardiest mortals alive, for they do stand such treatment some way, though they're mighty delicate and seem to be proud of it; in fact, I think a good many of them had rather have a fashionable consumption than a vulgar, good constitution.

I wonder how long a boy is a boy-there's my sister Leuisa come home from boarding school "finished," as they call it, at sixteen, while I've got to study three years longer to knew as much as she does—that is, provided she's got her education, and I am passed eighteen. Louisa is going to be married next week—who pretends to call her a girl? Nobody; "its Mi-s Louisa Sands, that young lady," of her, and its "my dear boy," by mother and 'we must overlook the freaks of a her," by father—and thet's the way that boy,' by father-and that's the way they talk to me and of me-me, John Sands, that's next to the head of the family.

Next to the head of the family.

Sisters can do anything they please, even to wearing false hair and every other false fixing, and nobody says a word; but the first time I put on a dickey it was almost as much as my life was worth to meet with the family. I thought I could bear it like a hero, but the "oh's," and "ah's!" the pulling the points up over my checks, the mock salutations to Mr. Sands, the derisive lengther was more than I was prepared for, and laughter was more than I was prepared for, and I actually ran from the house while all the girls shouted after me, "goed-bye, Mr. Sands, take care of that new dickey."

I brought home a nice raxor-box the day I was I brought home a nice raror-box the day I was sighteen, and for safe-keeping, hid it in the garet between the rafters. Vain precaution! When got home, box, brushes, straps, yowder, and interest was paraded upon the table, and a little scrap of paper pinned to the wall, on which was written, "Johnny dear, be careful; little boys should not play with edge tools;" and all my sisters could sing that day, was "A frog he would a woolng go."

would a wooling go."

Never was I so angry in my life, but I bore it like a philosopher, only it did try me, when of mornings I fondly thought myself unobserved, to like a philosopher, only it did try me, when or mornings I fondly thought myself unobserved, to hear a gigling outside the door, and my little six year old sister lisp, instigated by older and more wicked spirits, "Johnny, here's pussy wants to be shared."

And so it is in everything; it seems strange that men who profess to so much dignity after they are twenty-one, should have to submit to so much indignity up to the very borders. It's curious, and it puzzles me; it's as fact in metaphysics that I can't account for, and I don't suppose I ever shall. It's martyrdom, and you won't catch me after I'm twenty-one, singing-"I would I were a boy again!"

BARRELIVILE, ALLEGART COUNTY, (Md.,)

May 4, 1862.

To Mearz. Movience & Moublery.

Dran Suns: In justice to Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, I wish to inform you that I was taken sick on the 3d day of January last, with an affection of the stomach, bowels, and kidneys. I was attended by four eminant physicans for more than two months—all to little or no effect. I had some knowledge of the great virtue in Hampton's Tincture from one bottle which my wife had taken two years since.

since.

I came to the conclusion that I would take no more medicine from my physicians, but try, the Tincture; and I am happy to inform you I had not taken it two days before I felt its powerful influence upon my stomach. I have continued using the Tincture, and am now able to leave my room, and can eat any common diet without much inconvenience or pressure on my stomach.

The afflicted or their friends are daily visiting me, to learn of the great virtue there is in this Tincture of Hampton's. I expect to send you several certificates in a few days—one especially from a young lady who has been confined to her room tradye months, with a disease of the head, affecting the brain.

Respectfully yours,

Mesers. Mortimer & Mombray:

Dear Sins: I am happy to inform you that this day finds me in the enjoyment of good health, by the use of your Hampton's Tincture and the blessing of God. I am enabled to pursue my dally arcoations as usual, and I have a great desire that the afflicted should know the great curative powers of the Tincture.

I am, with respect, yours.

Meyers. Mortimer & Mowbray: Gents: Last September I was attacked with arysipelas, from which a dreadful ulcer formed on my right leg. Getting better of titls, last November I took a deep cold, which led to what my physician toid me was billous pleurisy, which left to what my physician toid me was billous pleurisy, which left me with a constant, deeply-scated, and painful cough, having no rest day or night, and constantly throwing up from my lungs a thick matter. I become much emadisted, growing weaker every day, and keeping my bod the greater part of the time. My friends thought I had the consumption, and at times I was also of the same opinion. At this stage of my disease, after having tried many and various remedies, without success, a friend advised me to try DR. HANFTON'S VECETABLE TINCTURE, and procured me a bottle, which I now pronounce TURE, and procured me a bottle, which I now pronounce the greatest medicine I ever took. Before I had taken half the contents of one bettle I felt much improved; and now, having taken but two bottles, my cough and pairs have entirely Lift me, and I am enabled to attend to business. I can truly say that, with the blessing of God, I have been restored to the health I now enjoy by the use of this most invaluable medicine.

Yours,

Were there not real virtues in this wonderful medicine, could it perform the astonishing cures made by it?

Nontamatyron Co. April 13, 1852.

Mezers. Tyler & Adoir: I have been afficied with Rheumatism, at times, from my twelfth year; I will be fifty years of age the 18th of this month; the attacks were at times so severe as to render me helpless; I have tried various remedios to very little effect. Last Gotober I was attacked in my shoulders, sides, back, and hips; I could not rest, day or night; I could not neve any part of my body without crying with pain; at this time I also tried many remedies, internal and external, without receiving any relief; I was nt last advised to try HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINOTURE; before I had taken one bottle of which I felt much better, and as I coultinued taking it I felt strengthe coming into my back and limbs, and my stemach strengthened and revived every wey; I have taken five bottles; and am much better than I ever expected to be. I intend to use it whenever I need it, and would recommend it to the affilicted, believing it unequalled.

Yours, Were there not real virtus in this wonderful medicine it unequalled. Yours, ELIZABETH BAGWELL.

REV. VERNON ESKRIDGE, U. S. N.

Mr. J. E. Beuzh—Dear Sir: While I am in general opposed to Patent Medicines, candor compels me to state that I have great confidence in the virtues of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. For several months past I have used it in my family, and in Dyspepsia, loss of appetite, cizziness, and general debility, with entire success. So far as my experience extends, therefore, I take pleasure in recommending it to the afflicted as a safe and efficient remedy.

I am, respectfully, yours,
